The Chiba Prefectural Government has received the result of the monitoring inspection on the Baird’s beaked whale sample landed at the Wada Fishing Port on 21 June, 2011, from the Japan Small-Type Whaling Association.

Agent that conducted the inspection
Japan Small-Type Whaling Association

Results of the inspection

Analysis facility: National Research Institute of Fisheries Science, Fisheries Research Agency, Japan

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>No</th>
<th>Sampling date</th>
<th>Item</th>
<th>Operation area</th>
<th>Radioactive iodine</th>
<th>Radioactive cesium</th>
<th>Analysis result</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>20 June, 2011</td>
<td>Baird’s beaked whale (Berardius bairdii)</td>
<td>20 km offshore Wada</td>
<td>Not detectable</td>
<td>Not detectable</td>
<td>Below the Provisional Regulation Value</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

- Provisional regulation value for fish

  Radioactive iodine: 2000 Becquerel/kg
  Radioactive cesium: 500 Becquerel/kg